

OCCUPATIONAL THERAPY IN PULMONARY REHABILITATION

This course provides an overview of Occupational Therapy's role in pulmonary rehabilitation, with attention to diagnoses, terminology and procedures, and process. It concludes with case studies.

Upon completion of this course, you will be able to :

- Differentiate between primary pulmonary diagnoses and identify at risk population.
- Identify causes and risk factors for developing chronic lung diseases.
- Identify common procedures pertaining to pulmonary rehabilitation.
- Recognize roles of occupational therapy in pulmonary rehabilitation.
- Implement the plan of care by using occupational therapy process from evaluation to discharge.
- Implement various occupational therapy evaluations and screening tools that may be used in pulmonary rehabilitation.
- Implement various occupational therapy interventions and education tools that may be used in pulmonary rehabilitation.
- Identify occupational therapy considerations for safe discharge planning, including addressing clients questions/concerns.

Author: Christine Church , M.S., OTR/L

Contact Hours : 4.00 Hours (AOTA CEUs—0.4)

Instructional Methods : Online Independent Self-Study (Training + Post-Test)

Audience: This course is designed for OTs, OTAs, PTs, PTAs and other healthcare professionals

AOTA Classification Codes: Category 2 – Occupational Therapy Process: Evaluation; Category 2 – Occupational Therapy Process: Intervention; Category 2 – Occupational Therapy Process: Outcomes).

Educational Level: Intermediate

Prerequisites: None

Cost: $25 / Participant

Course Completion Certificate : A minimum passing score of 70% is required for course completion. A Printable (Pdf) Certificate By Email.

Cancellation / Refund Policy: By completing your purchase from Biologix Solutions LLC through PayPal, you agree that you are purchasing digital, non-tangible product / service / training courses, and as such are not entitled to a refund once accessed. If you have any questions, please feel to contact us by phone or email before purchasing online course.

Biologix Solutions LLC is an AOTA Approved Provider of continuing education. The assignment of AOTA CEUS does not imply endorsement of specific course content, products, or clinical procedures by AOTA.